Paparazzi Compliance

It has come to our attention that you are in violation of Paparazzi Policies and Procedures, Section 4.14, which states as follows:

Consultants may not use disparaging remarks in relation to Paparazzi corporate staff, employees, directors, officers, or any other representative of Paparazzi, including but not limited to other Independent Consultants. Consultants are to conduct their business with positivity and in a manner that uplifts everyone. Comments made by Consultants that may be negative in nature and relate to others potentially damage their own business, the businesses of others, and the Paparazzi brand. Consultants should be courteous, polite, and always seek an amicable resolution to any disagreement or dispute.

You are disparaging Paparazzi and your account is cancelled.

It has come to our attention that you are selling below the mandated prices in violation of Paparazzi Policies and Procedures so extensively that your account is cancelled.

Section 5.11 provides:

5.11 Retailing or Reselling

After the initial product or inventory is purchased, no product can be resold or retailed for less than the suggested retail price (no product under $5 USD). This includes, but is not limited to, offering or advertising free items through buy X, get X promotions or giving free gifts with a purchase. This same policy applies whether the free promotional item being offered is a Paparazzi product or a product not carried in Paparazzi's inventory.

Offering or advertising these types of promotions lowers the retail price of each piece sold below the required $5 USD minimum. Doing so compromises the entire Paparazzi program for all Consultants. Any promotion of a Consultant's independent business or the Paparazzi opportunity through any channel of communication (public or private) is considered advertising.

Additionally, giving away free items that are not sold by Paparazzi can lead customers to the assumption that those items are part of Paparazzi's product offering. As outlined in Section 5.13, offering non-Paparazzi products alongside Paparazzi products compromises its good name and can lead to the Paparazzi name and brand being associated with inferior products.

Any exceptions to this policy must be authorized by an official Paparazzi officer in writing prior to the sale or event.

Bling Auntie was live.

February 11

I love-love-love my customers, small business, and the excitement I get as an older worker, but I'm at a point where I have to make hard choices for my time and priorities--something just has to give.

I have been an independent consultant with Paparazzi Accessories, a multi-level marketing (MLM) organization, for nearly 2.5 years. It has been a blessing and, in some ways, a curse.

Join me live and I will fill in the blanks so that you can help me decide. What do you think? Please join me in the chat, comment on the replay, if you're super brave you can come on camera... if I can figure out how to do that.

Thank you, truly.

Is it just me, or are lawsuits against Paparazzi Accessories dropping like NEW RELEASES? The new lawsuit filed by Auto-Owners Insurance, Paparazzi's OWN insurance company, may bring an end rapidly to all litigation.

The Auto-Owners Insurance suit incorporates all class-action litigation for which Paparazzi is the defendant. Let's look at ...
